W. E. Thomas of Whitwell was here Thursday with the picnic. He is the same old baseball fan as even and brags mightily over the work of the Whitwell team in balldom this year, and especially of the work of Hutchinson, their star pitcher, who is pitching as good ball as he ever did, although the S. P. Hustler calls him a "has been."

Mr. and Mrs. James Hoge of Ebenezer, were in attendance Thursday. "Jim" was as full of jollity as a coconut is of meat, and was having great fun over capture of the bootlegging establishment on his farm that week. Somebody got busy and reported it as in existence to the revenue men, but when the revenue men got there with full equipment of firearms Jim said it was no joke, although it is one now, and said said for about 48 hours or until the still was captured, it was pretty serious times. The people of the community all seem glad that the outfit was captured, for it has aggravated them for a long time.

THEY WANT A CHANGE.

A Chicago postal employee writes: "The writer has had several years of experience in the postal service and has a thorough understanding of its working, having entered same in 1909 under Postmaster General Hitchcock. I believe I am voicing the sentiments of at least 90 per cent of the employees when I say we are glad to return a Republican administration and will vote accordingly. Mr. Harding will be elected just as sure as the sun rises in the east. Any postal employee who can conscientiously vote the Democratic ticket this fall will prove himself weak in the upper story."—National Republican.

C. P. CHURCHES IN BIG OUTING

Cowan Quartet of Whitwell Furnishes Enjoyable Singing for the Day.

The picnic of the C. P. Churches and Sunday Schools of the county here Thursday was a success, there being a good attendance from every church and Sunday school. The following were represented: Richard City, South Pittsburg, Jasper, Ebenezer, Oak Grove, New Hope, Cedar Springs, and Whitwell.

The morning was bright and sunny, hot enough to make the Blowing Spring greatly appreciated, but after dinner the clouds gathered and showers fell making it ideal picnic weather—for ladies hats and light garments. Refuge was taken in the Town Hall where singing was indulged in till the clouds let up and automobiles and trains arrived for the picnickers.

The dinner served at noon was magnificent, and those partaking came back reporting a tired feeling. It was thoroughly enjoyed and the News missed it in not accepting the invitation offered, but it was publication day and the work had to move along.

The singing by the Cowan Quartet, composed of John Cowan, Pete Hackworth, J. A. Layne, W. E. Thomas, and J. B. Tygart, was excellent. We say quartet, but a better term would be quintet. Anyway they came up to the News office just after alighting from the aeroplane—er, train—and gave us a special concert, and it was good. No organ or instrument to drown discords, but just human voices in accord. We repeat, it was good.

A choir of ladies also furnished some excellent selections.

The attendance was made up of most excellent people, ladies and gentlemen, all, and nicely dressed, well behaving children, whom it was a pleasure to see on our streets.

Church Appointments.

J. H. Pritchard, Looney Creek, quarterly meeting, Saturday and Sunday.

The Old Tobacco Box

There was an old Geezer and he had a wooden leg, No tobacco could he borrow, no tobacco could he beg. There was another old Geezer who took care of his rocks, He always had tobacco in his old tobacco box.

Said Geezer number one: "Won't you give me a smoke?" Said the other old Geezer: "You're no cause to be broke, 'If you'd buy a few thrift stamps and save up your dough 'Your store of tobacco wouldn't always run low."

Now this same old Geezer with the same old wooden limb Is saving up in thrift stamps and you can't stump him.

He learned to be thrifty and cares for his rocks And has plenty of tobacco in his old tobacco box.
